

WHITE WINE

175ml/BTL

- 2016 Cotes du Gascogne, Plaimont Producers, France 7 / 25
Clean and dry with aromatics of pineapple, peach and pear.
- 2016 Enologica Cassara, Grillo, Sicily, Italy 8 / 28
A biodynamic producer with hilly vineyards in the West of Sicily. This Grillo is typical of the area, rich tropical fruit with a floral notes.
- 2016 Ariousios Greek Island, Assrytiko, Chios, Greece 9.5 / 35
Hailing from Chios on the far eastern side of Greece. Assrytiko is making some of the most exciting wine coming out of Greece at the moment. Lemon fresh acidity with a seaside minerality, hints of green olive and wild herbs.
- 2016 La Distesa, Marche Bianco, Terre Silvate, Italy 10 / 40
From a tiny organic farm in Le Marche, winemaker Corrado makes his Verdicchio the old fashioned way. A savoury, nutty white wine that is incredibly versatile.
- 2013 I Clivi, Brazan, Collio, Friuli, Italy 50
‘I Clivi means ‘the slopes’ and this Friulano, from a father and son team who have been working organically from the early 90’s, comes from a ninety year old vineyard planted on a particularly steep slope. This a complex, elegant white wine with a gentle, floral aroma and wonderful texture.
- 2016 Nino Barraco, Cataratto, Marsala, Sicily 55
A wine that comes from the very west of Sicily, from a beautiful organic vineyard just a few metres from the sea. The black volcanic soils lend a beautiful smokiness to this salty, citrusy wine that has a natural affinity with seafood.
- 2015 Jean-Pierre Robinot, ‘Charme’, Loire, France 70
Robinot is one of the true pioneers of the natural wine movement, his wines have infectious energy. This is the kind of Chenin we could drink every day. With 18 months of elevage this complex tightrope balance blossoms into wonderful freshness. If you want to explore what natural wine is all about you will find it hard to do better than this.
- 2016 Frederic Cossard, Beaune ‘Les Bressandes’, Burgundy 85
This has everything we love about Burgundy, from one of the regions up and coming stars, Frederic Cossard. Fruit and minerality, power and poise, this has it all.

RED WINE

175ml/BTL

- 2016 Cotes de Gascogne, Plaimont Producers, France 7 / 25
The Cotes de Gascogne appellation lies between the Pyrenees and the Atlantic. The tannat grape gives the wine its structure of black fruit, Cabernet Sauvignon gives it freshness and spicy hints.
- 2017 Terra Firma, Nero d’Avola, Sicily, Italy 8 / 28
Nero d’Avola makes big styles of wine often akin to Syrah. Packed full of sun drenched Sicilian fruit and sweetly scented with dark cherry earthiness intertwined with dried spice and vanilla.
- 2016 Elias Mora, ‘Semi Crianza’, Toro, Spain 9.5 / 35
The Elias Mora winery situated in Toro in North East Spain produces traditional Spanish wine through native vines. Made from Tinta de Toro the grandfather of Tempranillo and aged in American oak this brings a welcome hit of black fruit, liquorice, coffee and vanilla.
- 2015 Cascina Tavijn, ‘Barbera Bandita’, Piemonte, Italy 11 / 45
From the hills of Monferrato in the province of Asti. Their family have a long history of making wines. This is made from the Barbera grape, the work horse of Piedmont. Wonderfully perfumed with that hallmark acidity that bring freshness to the fore.
- 2015 Jerome Lambert, ‘Le Fil Rouge’, Anjou, Loire, France 50
Jerome Lambert is a truly underground winemaker, making tiny quantities of exquisite wine in France’s Loire Valley. This blend of Groulleau and Cabernet Franc is typical of the region’s reds – light, juicy, earthy and spiced.
- 2015 Testalonga, Rossese di Dolceacqua, Liguria, Italy 55
Winemaker Antonio Perrino has been making wine in his garage in the village of Dolceacqua for over fifty vintages! From a tiny plot of vines in the hills of Liguria over 100 years old, this is a wine which tastes distinctly Mediterranean, full of sun kissed fruit and heady with herbs.
- 2008 Cantina Giardino, ‘Aglanico Nude’, Campania, Italy 70
‘Nude’ is their top Aglianico, a 1 hectare plot of 90 year old vines at 550m in the heart of Taurasi. This is proper Aglianico, fermented for 2 months on the skins in a large chestnut vat. With 3 years in oak this is unfiltered with zero additions and kept in the cantina until deemed ready for release. Incredibly savoury and deep.
- 2014 Olek Bondonio, Barbaresco ‘Roncagliette’, Piedmont, Italy 85
Olek Bondonio is one of the best young winemakers in Piedmont today and this Nebbiolo, from one of the most storied vineyards in the region is clear evidence why. A wine that walks that tightrope balance of power and poise that suggests it won’t be long before Olek reaches the heady heights of his neighbour and friend Angelo Gaja.

SWEET WINE

100ml/BTL

- 2013 Ezio Cerruti, Sol, Langhe, Piedmont (375ml) 15 / 55
A beautiful passito of Moscato from one of the masters of the style that spends four years in barrel before release. Ezio’s patience in both the vineyard and cellar yields a wine of unusual complexity, bright, golden and floral, its sweetness is tempered by vibrant acidity, spice and a savoury minerality from chalky soils.

ORANGE WINE

2016 Cantina Giardino, ‘Sophia’, Campania 65
A beautiful expression of orange/skin contact wine. This is white wine made using the same techniques as a red wine. The ‘Sophia’ is made from Fiano which is aged in amphorae a clay vessel made from the clay found in the vineyard. Grapes are trodden by foot and spends half a year on the skins. A remarkably structured savoury wine.

ROSE WINE

2016 Provence, Chateau Nestuby, France 9 / 24
Perfect light Provence salmon pink served in the classically shaped bottle of the region. Aromas of candied strawberries and Mediterranean herbs.
